_____ Saturday, January 9 Funding Streams: How Serious Writers Plunge In
C. Hope Clark www.fundsforwriters.com/

Determine where and how to take your writing to the editors and websites that pay and that help you reach your target audiences.

_____ Saturday, February 13 A Day of Beginnings
Georgann Eubanks www.georganneubanks.net/

For writers of fiction, nonfiction and/or poetry, Georgann will address character development, scene description, and word choice to give new juice to your writing.

_____ Saturday, March 13 Shades of Grey: Writing for a World That Isn't Black & White
Don Dixon www.dondixonmusic.com/

Dixon will concentrate on writing songs that are not too preachy, not too idealistic, not too cynical, but multi-faceted & complicated like life really is. (Class limit 10)

_____ Saturday, April 10 Be The Camera: Showing The Story & Reporting The Fiction
John Jeter thelunderroom.blogspot.com/

Novelist and former newspaperman Jeter will talk about how to use personal experience to show your story.

Sessions are $75 each, which includes lunch. Deadline for early bird registration is January 4 and registration for each session is limited to 12 people. To reserve an early bird space, send a check for $40 (balance of $35 due day of workshop.)

You can get a discount by signing up for more than one Weather Creek Writers' Session.

2 sessions=$140, 3 sessions=$200, 4 sessions=$250. Gift certificates are available. All sessions will start promptly at 10 a.m. and end at approximately 3 p.m. If you have any questions do not hesitate to contact us at weatherscreek@aol.com or call 704-662-0187. Directions to The Farm at Weathers Creek and more details will be sent to you in weeks to come.
